

Mrs. Heinrich

Reading Aide

Alise Heinrich has worked in education for 19 years including two years in a Montessori school. Teaching primary and elementary children has been her specialty, as she assists in the areas of phonemic awareness and reading. She also teaches the Leadership Spelling I Class.

Alise and her husband host and lead a small group in their home and she is involved with her church's intercessory prayer team. She is also talented in art and works with clay.

Alise has also taught elementary and middle school art at LCA and continues to use this God-given talent to support and enrich life at the academy.

"My heart's desire is to see the students here grow to love God, first and foremost, as they develop into the unique leaders He has created them to become."
