

Holly Nye received her associate's degree in theology, with a focus on music ministry, from Blue Ridge Bible College. She went on to earn her bachelor's degree in education from Edinboro University, holding dual certification in Elementary and Special Education with a concentration in literacy. Holly later completed her master's degree in educational leadership from PennWest University.

Before joining LCA, Holly taught in public schools and brought with her a rich background of experience in both education and ministry. A graduate of a Christian school herself—from kindergarten through high school—Holly has a lifelong passion for faith-based education. In her church, she served as the Children's Church Director before stepping into her current role as Worship Leader and Director of Music.

Outside of her professional work, Holly treasures time with her family and dog, enjoys shopping, spending time with friends, and has a deep passion for music.

Holly shares, "I am honored to be serving at LCA. I love that I can teach with Christ-centered values and impart God's love into the next generation."
